Temple Begins Fund Campaign

Mrs. Anna Grancell, community and Temple leader, will be honorary general chairman of the building fund drive for Temple Menorah of Redondo Beach.

The drive, which started effective Jan. 13, has an ultimate goal of $250,000. The present aim is to raise $75,000 to cover the costs of building religious school classrooms and a social hall, which will also be used as a sanctuary until the second part of the program is completed.

Facilities Inadequate

Under the leadership of Rabbi Henri E. Front, the past year has seen the congregation grow and progress to the point where the religious school and present structure of the Temple are inadequate.

On Saturday evening, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., a Temple dinner will be held at the Hollywood Riviera Club, free to members and friends of the Temple. This dinner will be an educational and inspirational affair. No pledges or solicitations will be sought. It is expected that this will be the largest dinner gathering in the Temple history. The Temple now has 152 member families. Entertainment for member's children this evening will be provided at the Temple.

Chairmen Told Committee chairmen working on the drive are Matthew J. Ellenhorn, M.D., initial gifts chairman; Charles Davis, special gifts chairman; Al Levitt, teams chairman; Mark Bennett, canvas committee chairman; Mrs. Jack Belford, arrangements chairman for the dinner; Mrs. Ben Kaufman, hostess chairman.

Team captains are Bert Shupps, Seymour Uberman, David Brandwein and Hy Friedman. Total canvass committee will include about 65 men and women. The program will be a three year one. Solicitations on this present drive will be completed by Feb. 3, and that evening a "Victory Snack" will be held to celebrate having gone over the goal.

Pastor to Describe 'What Jesus Saw'

The eighth sermon in the series, "On Seeing What Jesus Saw," will be delivered at First Methodist Church Sunday, at the 9 and 11 a.m. services.

It will describe the highest mount on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee, the traditional place where Jesus gave the beatitudes and the sermon on the mount.

It was in August this past summer that Rev. and Mrs. Taylor climbed the mount and were refreshed by a visit to the Italian Hospice which has been built there for visitors. Afterward they sat on the side of the mount and read Matthew's version of the most famous sermon ever delivered.

It is recalled that in Jesus's day the area around the Sea was much more prosperous and heavily populated. Near this area is where Jesus is said to have fed the 5000, and a few miles to the east is Capernum where Jesus taught in the synagogue, called Andrew and Peter, James and John to be his disciples. Matthew, the author of the first Gospel, is thought to have been a tax collector in this vicinity.

Sixteen new members will be received into the church on Sunday at the 11 hour. This will put the membership of the church substantially over the 1200 number.
